

The Cliff Barstow Jig Competition 2022 at Whitby Folk Week

In memory of founder member Cliff Barstow, White Rose Morris Men sponsor an annual jig competition.

A trophy will be awarded to the winner.

The competition will take place in the Spa Foyer on Tuesday 23rd August
4.30pm

ENTRY IS FREE

Entry form overleaf - more forms can be downloaded from the White Rose website
whiterosemorrismen.org.uk

Dancers should be prepared to dance a standard Cotswold jig of their choice as well as one from the following list:

- Old Tom of Oxford: Bampton
- Princess Royal: Bledington
- None So Pretty: Field Town
- I'll Go and Enlist: Sherborne

Music should be from a single musician – for the compulsory jig this musician will be nominated by White Rose. For the own-choice jig you should supply your own musician.

Your name:.....

Your team (optional):.....

Your compulsory dance choice:

.....

Your own choice dance and tradition

(this dance will only be used if selected as a finalist):

.....

Your contact phone number:.....

Please return the form by email to bagman@whiterosemorrismen.org.uk
or hand it to one of White Rose Morris Men